

National Indian Gaming Association Announces 2018 Event Registration Opens

First time Las Vegas location draws excitement around cutting-edge education, access to the latest technologies, awards and celebrations.

Washington D.C. (November 13, 2017) – The Indian Gaming Tradeshow & Convention, the National Indian Gaming Association's annual gathering, announced their 2018 registration is now open. The longest running gaming tradeshow will be held at a Las Vegas location for the first time -- April 17-20, 2018 at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Over the four day event, attendees and tribal leaders will come together for an unprecedented number of networking events, educational seminars, awards ceremonies, and evening celebrations. The conference program has established itself as the gold standard in education as tribal members share secrets of success for issues unique to tribal gaming. And this year's exhibit hall has already drawn 30 new companies to the event, putting it on track to be the largest in event history providing diverse product offerings and access to the latest services and technology.

NIGA Chairman Ernie Stevens, Jr. said "The change in venues represents an important time for the Association and the Show. We are excited about the level of enthusiasm we have received from members, attendees, speakers and sponsors for the first-time Las Vegas location. Providing a new and unique show experience for our customers is a priority as we continue to evolve and grow the Indian Gaming tradeshow".

With the Las Vegas location, the event has never been more affordable, providing attendees with access to a variety of lower cost hotel options (as low as $89 per night), along with a plethora of dining and entertainment experiences.

Attendees are encouraged to register early to take advantage of packages and discounts which add to savings. Early rates are in effect through March 16, 2018 online at www.indiangamingtradeshow.com.
